Go to Stern's East and West Las Vegas.
All the merchants in the new town report business good.

Fresh car load of apples, just received by Hopper Bros. 99-2t.

Everybody goes to Hopper Bros., East Las Vegas, when they want a square meal. 99-2t.

Hermit's Peak looked quite frigid yesterday morning, before the sun took the snow off.

T. T. Smith & Co. carry a full stock of burial cases and are well up in that line of business.

J. C. Robinson opposite to the Depot, East Las Vegas, is keeping a hotel that is constantly growing in popular favor.

The Hilly Brothers as grocers are prompt and punctual every article in their establishment is new and fresh and the public need look no further for bargains.

Moore & Bennett have a splendid assortment of apples just received from the states. Step into their store on the south side and examine them in the row of open barrels.

To be a lawyer in this country one must speak, read and write, the Spanish. Lydon, has had the advantage, and the industry that language.

Three saloons which were formerly on the north side of the road, on Monterey Hill, are gone. One moved across the street and as for the others, who answers "where."

The controllers of the various accuquias, should see to it that the ice does not block them up and cause them to overflow and run the waters premises through the streets, as was the case yesterday.

The plaza was flooded again Tuesday afternoon in a way that is quite disgusting. Is there no law to prevent the creation of such a nuisance? If there is not it is high time a city government was organized.

The carpenters have the timbers of the west span of the bridge in place. The approaches to the bridge are nearly completed and it looks now as though the bridge would be opened to the public in a few days.

Mr. Robbins the furniture man is at the east. J. B. Colyer with an able assistant is in charge and no business taken to the shop will be allowed to lag. For good bargains, take advantage of the old man's absence and give them a call.

The attention of the authorities and public spirited men generally is called to the condition of the wagon road through the Puertecito and railroad crossing at Romeroville. It is almost impassable and over that comes the entire trade and travel from the south. It must be fixed, and the sooner the better.

Mr. M. E. Kelly engaged in the wool business here inserts his advertisement in another column. Mr. K. has bought largely this summer, finds it profitable and is extending his business throughout the Territory. He has been receiving during the past week several large and fine lots of wool purchased at Anton Chico and other points on the Pecos. He pays cash, deals liberally and hence at once takes a front rank among the dealers in this staple.

I am in receipt of a letter from Ohio inquiring about a young man by the name of Albert Rhyman, who is, or has been in Las Vegas. Mr. Rhyman has been in frequent communication with his parents (living near Cincinnati) until within a few weeks past. I have made inquiries, but have failed to find anything certain of him. His father is probably now deceased. If any one having knowledge of Mr. Rhyman would communicate with me I would be very much obliged.

JOHN A. ANNIN,
Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 18, 1879.

The Mackley House is now doing a deservedly good business.

A BIG MAKE

One of the partners of an enterprising mercantile firm at Albuquerque recently arrived in town. He found wool booming and immediately telegraphed his partner to invest largely at the local prices. The latter did so buying some 250,000 pounds, fully 4 cents lower than it can be sold for here, thus clearing $10,000 by a turn of the hand.

N. M. and S. P.

The freight business of the road is still very heavy.

Mr. A. C. Robinson chief engineer is back from Santa Fe.

Mr. Brick, who manages the boarding train was up last evening.

Joe Pilcher has returned to his first love and again has a desk in the depot.

Mr. G. B. Lake, division superintendent, is expected here in a day or two.

Gov. Anthony and Hon. Miguel A. Otero went south on business connected with the road this morning.

Mr. Frank Whitler succeeds Mr. Pilcher as chief clerk of the construction department. He always managed the trained lightning for the department.

Rumors still come from St. Louis of an intention to complete the rail road from Vinita, Indian territory, to the Pacific Ocean.

An item clipped from the Los Angeles Journal shows that some of our great men are now in the neighborhood of the South Pacific.

The rails are laid some seven miles beyond the bridge on the Pecos, to a point some three miles west of San Jose. The track layers are up with the bridge builders.

The walls of the company's new round house at Willow Springs are up. The hotel and depot will be moved from Otero and with them will go the last remnant of the "Vision City."

Yesterday morning's train was several hours late, caused by the heavy fall of snow on the Raton Mountains. The snow for the last several days has been falling very heavily on that range.

Railroad building is going on more extensively now than at any time for six years. The late success of the north Pacific road will stimulate the grand trunk lines to push their roads into all parts of the west.

The junction of the Santa Fe branch with the main line at or near Cañoncito will be called Manzanares in honor of the distinguished member of the firm of Browne Manzanares & Co. The honor is well deserved.

Rail road consolidation is the order of the day. The latest case is that of the Grand Trunk, of Canada, which now with its subordinate lines reaches Chicago. All the great lines in the western states are pushing for Colorado or New Mexico.

PERSONAL.

Texas Frank, an alleged detective, has skipped to Kansas.

Dr. J. S. Bryant, Surgeon Dentist, will leave Las Vegas, Dec. 1st, for two months visit home.

Rev. H. Forrester and family and W. A. Givens arrived from Santa Fe last night by private conveyance.

H. Morgan, a tonsorialist and candidate in that line for public patronage, is located in the new town, opposite Browne & Manzanares. His shop is tidy, razors sharp, towels clean and soap suds fully as white as the snow that lingers upon the mountain tops and gleams in an August sun. In a word, Mr. Morgan is a perfect master of the situation and having been long at the front, is well and favorably known. He is famous as a hair cutter.

Santa Fe is luxuriating in a snow and sleigh rides. About a week ago they had six or eight inches of snow and Monday it piled it up again to about the same depth.
